

I have been a satellite radio user for about 6 months, I find it to be one of the best things to happen to entertainment and information services since TV went beyond local programming. Please let me keep making my choices for how I get information.